DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

In applicant's response dated July 21, 2004, it appears that applicant effectively cancelled all of the claims directed to the specific species. However, applicant did not indicate a provisional election of one invention for prosecution as is required under 37 CFR 1.143. Thus, the response of July 21, 2004, is considered non-responsive.

At the bottom of page 1 of applicant's remarks, applicant refers to specific claims, i.e., "NEW CLAIM 8," etc. It is unclear why applicant makes reference cancelled claims.

In applicant's traversal of the election requirement, applicant refers to several other applications of applicant's. Applicant believes that since election requirements were not made in any of these applications, it is not appropriate to make one in the current application.

How other cases have been treated has no bearing on the facts of the current case. It is noted that applicant has provided no reasoning or supporting evidence as to why the election requirement in the current case is not reasonable. Thus, the election requirement is considered to be proper.

Applicant uses of a Thesaurus to define the term species. The examiner notes that in U.S. patent practice, "species" has a specific meaning as defined in the Manual of Patent Examining Procedure. See MPEP Chapter 800.
